PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

CAUSE

On August 16, 2010, the undersigned officer conducted an unannounced home contact at the offender's residence. Upon arrival, the offender and his brother were observed walking around his garage. The undersigned officer walked behind Mr. Sanchez and his brother attempting to gain his attention, with negative results. When this officer walked around the corner of the garage, Saul Sanchez was observed standing at the back of his brother's car, with the trunk open, and holding a rifle. While displaying my firearm, the undersigned officer immediately instructed Mr. Sanchez to drop his weapon. Mr. Sanchez complied and placed the rifle in the trunk of the vehicle. Mr. Sanchez's brother left the area there after. Mr. Sanchez was verbally reprimanded and directed to report to the U.S. Probation Office on August 18, 2010, which he did.

Further review of the defendant's current living situation raise concerns. Specifically, given the fact that he appears to have access to firearms where he is residing. Placement at a residential reentry center would limit his activities in the community and allow him to secure a different residence.
